Just the word 'autumn' conjures up all sorts of treats like drinking a hot toddy under a warm, cozy blanket while binge-watching Netflix or, another sort of binge, eating and drinking any sort of pumpkin spice delight you can get your hands on.

Hotels also embrace the warm fuzzy feeling of the season and strive to give their guests memorable autumn experiences they can really fall for. Here's where to find some of the season's best.

THE LOGAN HOTEL (PHILADELPHIA, PA)

The Logan is a modern luxe hotel located in one of Philly's main cultural neighborhoods. To mark the season, the hotel has put together a Fall Foliage Package so you can enjoy the autumn leaves in Fairmount Park. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted with apple cider donuts and a festive hot toddy in the hotel's Urban Farmer restaurant to warm up. Then, a wicker basket—filled to the brim with a cozy blanket, tangy cheese, spicy charcuterie, a bottle of robust red wine and tasty miniature fall pies—means you can have a perfect picnic in the park while enjoying the amazing display of color. Afterward, stoke the fire by hanging out on the hotel's rooftop with a couple of cocktails while cuddling up around the firepits.
