

12 Amazing Romantic Getaways for Every Type of Couple

They're all an easy drive away.

WRITTEN BY GRACE CUTLER, SHERRI DALPHONSE, DALE LEATHERMAN, JOE SUGARMAN AND ANDREA POE | PUBLISHED ON FEBRUARY 5, 2019

If Your Idea of Romance Is: Looking at Amorous Art

Book Philadelphia's Love Letter Train Tour ($23 per person), a guided 90-minute ride that rumbles by 50 rooftop murals painted by street artist Steve Powers. Each of his creations touches on some aspect of love, whether the bond between a couple or an artist's affection for his city.

Bunk at the Logan hotel (1 Logan Sq.; 215-963-1500; rooms from about $200), which boasts its own collection of locally produced art and is within walking distance to Philly's art museums—the Barnes Foundation, Rodin Museum, and Philadelphia Museum of Art—as well as the city's famous "Love" sculpture.

Philadelphia is a three-hour drive or a two-hour train ride from DC.